Chris:

Many thanks for your prompt effort to introduce me to your former colleagues at Time Warner Cable. As it is always necessary to move quickly in seeking a new matter, we had not yet completed our conflict check when I asked for your assistance. I fully understand the problem that our firm's representation of an adverse party before the FCC poses for Time Warner Cable. Of course, I did not know of this conflict at the time I requested your assistance.

I have attached an e-mail that I sent today to Katharine Bernet which speaks for itself. I will be unable to join you at the Paris conference due to the two lost weeks resulting from our office closure and the acquisition of a major new matter related to the Hurricane Sandy disaster. I hope that you and your colleagues have a wonderful Thanksgiving and a successful trip to Paris. Best personal regards.

Jim

Dear Ms. Bernet,

I am scheduled to speak at the ICC Institute of World Business Law's conference on Third-Party Litigation Funding in International Arbitration. I regretfully can no longer attend the event due to the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy. As you likely are aware, Hurricane Sandy greatly impacted the New York/New Jersey area. My New Jersey-based law office (Patton Boggs LLP) was out of power for two weeks and has incurred significant damage. Additionally, I now have new cases to deal with directly relating to the storm. Because of the time and effort required to recover from our two-week closing, I cannot leave the country at this time.

To assist the ICC in dealing with my absence, I have coordinated with Tim Scrantom (Managing Director at BlackRobe Capital LLC and current ICC panelist). Subject to your approval, he has graciously agreed to cover my panel spot (9:15 – 10:45) in addition to his responsibilities for his panel (11:00 – 12:30). I have copied Mr. Scrantom on this correspondence. I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, but I am certain that Mr. Scrantom's assistance will help make this conference the outstanding event I was so looking forward to attend.

If you need anything from me, please let me know. I look forward to another opportunity to work with the ICC in the future.

Best Regards,

Jim Tyrrell
